EMPLOYEE-CONSUMER LIVE-IN DETERMINATION

(Determine if employee is exempt from overtime pay and income tax)

Employee Name	Employer of Record Name	Consumer Name

Domestic service workers may be exempt from overtime pay requirements and from paying income taxes. Consumer Direct Care Network (CDCN) will apply exemptions based on your answers below.

Employee-Consumer Live-in Status

Employee answers below with Yes or No

- ☐ Yes ☐ No – Do you live permanently in the same home as the above-named Consumer, or temporarily, but for extended periods of time (at least 120 hours per week or 5 consecutive days or nights per week)?

If you answered YES:

- Overtime hours worked are paid at the regular pay rate.
- Difficulty of Care income tax exemption status.

☐ Yes ☐ No – I declare under penalties of perjury that I am an individual care provider receiving payments under a state Medicaid Waiver program as defined in IRS Notice 2014-7.

I provide care to the Consumer named above. The Consumer resides in my home. I am not required to report income earned under this Medicaid program. Federal and state income taxes should not be withheld from my pay. If non-taxable wages have been reported by CDCN in Box 1 of my Form W-2, I can deduct the nontaxable wages from my taxable income when I file my tax return. If I no longer qualify for IRS Notice 2014-7, I will notify CDCN. At that time, federal and state income tax withholding will resume. If the IRS deems I was not eligible for 2014-7 and taxes were not paid, I agree that I will be liable for any back taxes owed.

Note: IRS Notice 2014-7 directs that payments received under a Home and Community-based Medicaid Waiver program for providing Personal Care or Habilitation services are considered "Difficulty of Care" payments excludable from income taxation when the Medicaid recipient lives in the care provider's home. Respite and skilled services do not qualify. For more information please refer to <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-drop/n-14-07.pdf>.

If you answered NO:

- Overtime hours worked are paid at 1.5 times the regular pay rate.

Acknowledgement: The Employee and Employer agree the declaration(s) above are accurate. If living arrangements change, the Employee must notify CDCN. Regardless of overtime status identified above, working overtime requires prior approval.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2021 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2020 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2021. You had no federal income tax liability in 2020 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2020 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2021 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2022.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2021 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____
 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____
- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____
- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2021 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 10% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter: $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \bullet $25,100 \text{ if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)} \\ \bullet $18,800 \text{ if you're head of household} \\ \bullet $12,550 \text{ if you're single or married filing separately} \end{array} \right\}$ 2 $ _____
- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" 3 $ _____
- 4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information 4 $ _____
- 5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 5 $ _____

Notice of Network Requirements Employee Information; Responsibilities

Dear Texas Employee:

Consumer Direct Care Network Texas (CDCN) is using The Hartford's Texas Workers' Compensation Health Care Network-FH. This is a certified workers' compensation network for providing healthcare service that you can use. We call it a "healthcare network" because it includes different kinds of healthcare services. This network is offered through your employer. This network has been certified by the Health and Workers' Compensation Networks & Quality Assurance Division. If you live in the area that is serviced by the network (called a Geographic Service Area, or simply "Service Area"), and if you are injured at work, you must get medical treatment through this network. Your employer must tell you about what you need to do so that you will be able to use the network if you are injured. Not all of the doctors in your area are part of this network. Your employer must also give you a list of the names of the doctors that you can use in your area. This list of network treating doctors includes:

- The names and addresses of the doctors and whether they are treating doctors (the kind of doctor that you contact yourself) or specialists (doctors that the treating doctor recommends); network doctors are listed by the kind of service they provide; treating doctors are listed separately from specialists;
- The names of the doctors who are able to determine whether your work related medical condition has reached maximum medical improvement and provide impairment ratings associated with your work related injury; and
- Information about doctors who are accepting new patients.

This list of network providers will be updated at least four times each year. If you would like a printed copy, please contact us at 1-800-327-3636, Option 4 and we will be happy to mail one to you. If you have Internet access, the electronic directory is updated more frequently.

CDCN utilizes a Risk Manager to help assist with workers' compensation claims and questions.

If you are injured please contact the Risk Manager at the Injury Hotline at 1-888-541-1701.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION NETWORK ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

I have received information that tells me how to get health care under workers' compensation insurance.

If I am hurt on the job and live in the service area described in this information, I understand that:

1. I must choose a treating doctor from the list of doctors in the network. OR, I may ask my HMO primary care physician to agree to serve as my treating doctor.
2. I must go to my treating doctor for all health care for my injury. If I need a specialist, my treating doctor will refer me. If I need emergency care, I may go anywhere.
3. The insurance carrier will pay the treating doctor and other network providers.
4. I might have to pay the bill if I get healthcare from someone other than a network doctor without network approval.

Occupational Exposure to Bloodborne PathogensUniversal Precautions

Blood has long been recognized as a potential source of pathogenic microorganisms that may present a risk to individuals who are exposed during the performance of their duties. Universal precautions is the method of control required by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) to protect employees from exposure to all human blood and body fluids. Universal precautions refers to a concept of bloodborne disease control, which requires that all human blood and certain human body fluids be treated as if known to be infectious for HIV (the virus that causes AIDS), the Hepatitis B virus and other bloodborne pathogens.

Protective barriers reduce the risk of exposure to blood, body fluids containing visible blood and other fluids to which universal precautions apply. Examples of protective barriers include gloves, gowns, masks and protective eyewear. Universal precautions are intended to supplement rather than replace recommendations for routine infection control, such as hand-washing and using gloves to prevent gross microbial contamination of hands. Universal precautions will be used during the provision of services as applicable and appropriate.

Hepatitis B

Hepatitis B is a serious infection involving the liver. Hepatitis B virus (HBV) can cause lifelong infection, cirrhosis (scarring) of the liver, liver cancer, liver failure and death. Hepatitis B is spread when blood or body fluids from an infected person enters the body of a person who is not infected. HBV is a major infectious occupational hazard for health care. Any health-care worker may be at risk for HBV exposure depending on the tasks that he or she performs. Workers should be vaccinated if their tasks involve contact with blood or blood-contaminated body fluids.

Employee Initials: _____ Date: _____

Hepatitis B Vaccination

OSHA standards effective June 4, 1992, require that employers make available the Hepatitis B vaccine and vaccination series to all employees who have occupational exposure. The Hepatitis B vaccine is available at no cost to the employee. The cost to provide vaccinations is an administrative expense to the employer and is reimbursable through the individuals's program budget.

The vaccine is administered in a prescribed series of three injections over a six-month period:

Dose 2 is administered 30 days after Dose 1.

Dose 3 is administered five months following Dose 2.

The employee is responsible for requesting from the healthcare provider administering the vaccination additional information specific to the efficiency, safety, benefits, method of administration and potential side effects of the Hepatitis B vaccination.

The employee may elect to receive or decline the Hepatitis B vaccination.

I understand that by declining this vaccine, I continue to be at risk of acquiring Hepatitis B, a serious disease. Long-term care employers, including Consumer Directed Service (CDS) employers, in Texas are required under 40, Texas Administrative Code (TAC), Part 1, Chapter 93, and Texas Health and Safety Code, Chapter 253 and to inform new unlicensed employees about the Employee Misconduct Registry (EMR).

The purpose of the EMR is to ensure that an unlicensed person who commits an act of abuse, neglect, or exploitation that meets the definition of reportable conduct against a consumer receiving services from a facility or against an individual receiving services in the CDS option is not employed in the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) regulated facilities and in certain programs including CDS. The EMR applies to employees who provide personal care services, treatment, or any other personal services and are not licensed by the state to perform the services.

A person listed in the EMR is not employable by a facility, agency, or individual employer. The EMR is governed by 40, Texas Administrative Code, Part 1, Chapter 93, and Texas Health and Safety Code, Chapter 253. Regarding a CDS employee, the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) conducts EMR investigations and makes findings in accordance with DFPS rules at 40 TAC, Part 19, Chapter 711, Subchapter O.
